

Please leave Indiana's telephone privacy law alone. Until this was passed, our phone rang at all hours with intrusive sales persons and fund raisers. Indiana's process has allowed us to have dinner without interuption, occasionally sleep in on Saturday morning, and not have to repeatedly deal with aggressive sales persons multiple times each day. Thank you.